

Mission:

Forming an alliance with the best possible partners Magnetec aims to develop and efficiently manufacture innovative, superior quality products and technology on the top of excellent services which meet or even exceed the customers' special expectations as well.

Provision:

Being the leading worldwide customer oriented value adding solution provider in the field of soft magnetic products committed to realize consistent continuous improvement, to take the utmost care of environment and to comply with all applicable regulation, directives, laws as well as to promote the internationally proclaimed initiatives.

Quality commitment:

Delivering products free from failure in expected time, at fair price and all in line with customers' requirements.

Considering the customers' satisfaction as a number one priority.

Increasing the exactness, stability and flexibility along the whole supply chain.

Taking „Zero defect“ approach and failure prevention as a daily practice.

Sustaining balanced manufacturing flow and optimized operation supported by constant facility efficiency (LEAN, TPM).

Improvement and regular follow up of competence and performance of the employees.

Improvement of supply chain and the capability of suppliers as well as exploring alternative supply sources.

Maximum working safety, clean, tidy and well organized working environment.

High level personal, property and information security.

Regular open communication to employees, partners, customers, suppliers, stakeholders and authorities.

Environmental commitment:

Complying with all environment related and other regulation, directives and laws apply to the Company.

Continuous monitoring and analysis of possible impacts to the environment.

The utmost preparation and reaction capability to any possible danger and emergency situation.

Reduction of emission, pollution and waste to a sustainable and reasonable minimum level.

Reduction of energy and resources being used for operation depending on the level of activity.

Application of environmental friendly materials and technology in every process.

Continuous improvement of the employees and the environment management system.

Supporting of customers in environment related compliances.

Supporting internationally proclaimed initiatives:

Respecting and support of human rights and not being complicit in human rights abuses

Elimination of all forms of forced, compulsory or child labour

Prevention of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation

Making sure the right to collective bargaining and the freedom of association

Acting against corruption, extortion and bribery in terms of ‚zero-tolerance‘ approach